DEDICATION

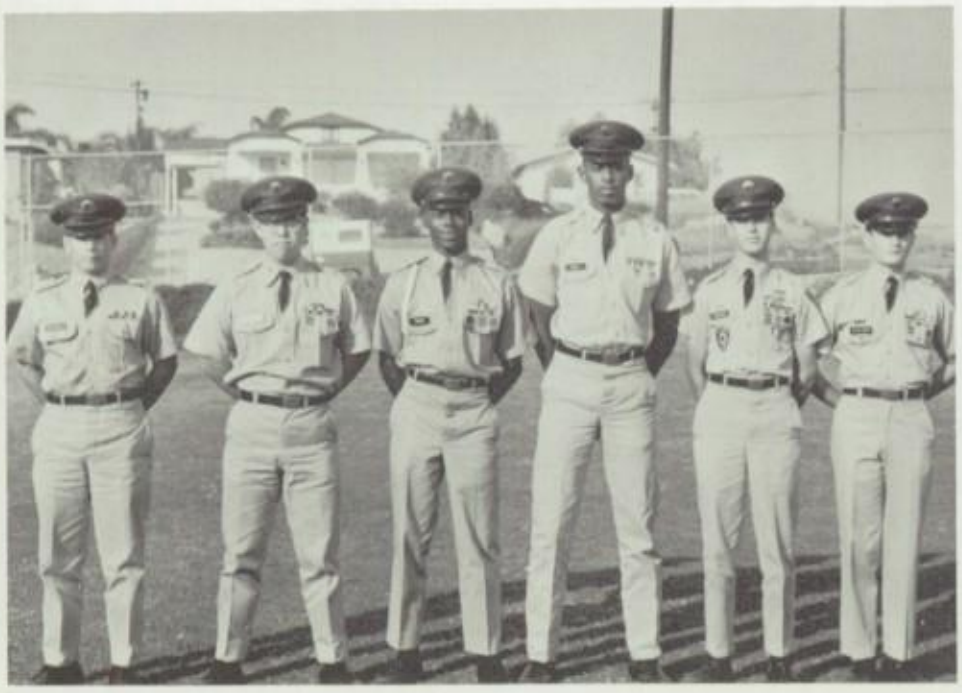

Mr. John C. Swift came to Lincoln in 1950 from La Jolla High School. In 1956, having been active in the Army Reserves he was asked to take supervision of the California Cadet Corps. He agreed to do so, but only for a period of one year. Mr. Swift is now completing his tenth year as supervisor of the California Cadet Corps.

Colonel Swift has had astounding success with the corps at Lincoln. Even during the period when other schools experienced disinterest in the Cadet Corps, Mr. Swift kept the battalion alive and strong. In short, Colonel Swift is the Cadet Corps. He is not only a commanding officer, but an inspiration and a successful teacher to nearly a thousand cadets.
